

This Week At St. Andrew's

MUSIC NOTES

April 27th at 12 noon is our Spring Recital.

Mark your calendars! Antonia Mahon, flautist, has played here before several times. This will be our first concert since the pandemic and we are excited to be performing again. Antonia is returning with a second flute player, Christine Constabel to play some of your favourites for 2 flutes and organ.

Pachelbel's Canon in D
Bach's Sheep May Safely Graze
Flower Duet from Lakme and others!

Plus, I will play some solo organ pieces including Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring.

We are looking forward to this and hope to see you there!

Mustard Seed Street Church - Fire Update

A recent fire caused extensive damage to their building. Food hampers continue to be distributed in the parking lot. Mustard Seed cannot accept food/clothing donations at this time. Donations welcome online @

<http://mustardseed.ca>

Thank you for continuing to support The Mustard Seed Street Church!

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church acknowledges and thanks the Lekwungen People – WSÁNEĆ, Songhees and Esquimalt First Nations – on whose traditional land we meet and worship.

REMINDERS:

Survey about the role of elders.

Hopefully you have already received a copy of the survey about the role of your elder. Additional copies of the questions available at the church, or you can complete this short survey on the church website.

We value your feedback; please take a few minutes to complete the survey.

Deadline for completion is April 28th.

ALSO!

The May deadline for submissions to The Link is April 30th! So make sure to send in anything you would like to see included before then!

HELP WANTED! COFFEE VOLUNTEERS!

We are still in need for some people who could help with occasional coffee serving on occasional Sundays.

We specifically need a few people for Sunday, April 30.

Are you able to spare 30-60 minutes after Worship to help with coffee for occasional Sundays?

Please contact Dorothy (or the Church Office) if you are willing to be on our 'substitute' list.

Thank you!
