

THIS WEEK AT ST. ANDREW'S

ISSUE # 195 JANUARY 2, 2024

LECTURE ROOM

Lecture room renovations will commence in January. This room will not be available for bookings until mid March. We would like to find a new home for the mini fridge which is in good working order but is being replaced by a standard fridge. Let us know if you are interested.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Rev. David Stewart. We are deeply saddened to announce his passing. Details of the service will be available soon.

ENSEMBLE LAUDE

VISIONS

Visions, our winter concert, presents beloved works from some of the world's most celebrated choral composers. Muusika and Kodutee by Part Uusberg, Falcon Carol by Stephen Chatman, and Only in Sleep by Erik Esenvalds pair with Antonio Lotti's Kyrie, the dynamic Pakkanen by Soila Sariola, and Kothbiro, arranged for Ensemble Laude by BC composer Alison Girvan. Also featured are traditional Georgian and Gregorian chants, that set the air shimmering with sound.

THE BALTIMORE CONSORT

Music from Scotland, France, England and Italy with a captivating narration by Emmy Award winner (and television and radio personality) Robert Aubry Davis. The short life of Mary Queen of Scots (1542-1587) was the stuff of great drama. Why has this sixteenth century Scottish queen captivated us for centuries? The layers of romance, deceit, political maneuvering, and the long Catholic and Protestant feud are all told in Mary's tale.
